

Virginia Rodriguez

State Victims' Rights Outreach Coordinator
Arizona Attorney General's Office

Virginia Rodriguez is currently a State Victims' Rights Outreach Coordinator at the Arizona Attorney General's Office. Virginia has a BA in Comparative History of Ideas and an MSW from the University of Washington. Virginia has over 10 years combined experience working both as a systems and non-profit advocate in the field of domestic violence. Most notably, Virginia utilized her advocacy skills as a responder to the mass shooting in Las Vegas, NV in 2017 and was subsequently awarded Distinguished Service Award in Advocacy by the Arizona Attorney General. In her role in Outreach, Virginia has implemented innovative training programs that have been requested statewide and on a national level. Virginia feels honored to be working in a position that combines her passion for Victims' Rights and traveling all over the great state of Arizona